1. Fund Raising

An overview of the current situation was presented by David

2. Projects

STEPS

Leader Eric Cobley

A cheque (£1900) has been given as 50% of the summer ball

Kids Out

Leaders Janet Shortland and Adrienne Holland

CRB information for Rotary helpers to be obtained from David Brown

Action JS

Life Education

Leader Charles Jenkin

The progress for the meeting on the 16th April is advanced, it looks likely that there will only be room for 20 Rotarians from each club, Richard to report to Council. The stand is booked for the Country Fayre promotion, the manning of the stand will be mainly with our club because Belvoir are helping with the door marshalling.

Action RH

Stroke Awareness Day

Leader Duncan Manderson

Duncan has met with David Sharpe from Belvoir we will need at least 12 helpers on the day from our club.

Reward Day

Leader Adrienne Holland

Nothing to report

School Gardening Competition

Leader Eric Cobley

Nothing to report

In Case of Emergency

Leader David Ward

Progress is being made, full report and action plan soon

Voluntary Action Melton

Leader Richard Haines

Richard reported that he had resigned as a Director.

Community Support

Ongoing

3. One off awards

A request from "Vitalise was considered and turned down.

A request from Melton Mowbray Methodist Circuit Youth and Children for help to establish a Youth Club was discussed and thought to be worthy of support. Richard to contact and establish the best method to proceed.
