Apologies Andrew Leaver, Mic Hirst, Eric Sylt, Jim Green and Penny Hancox
Matters Arising RYLA and The Raynes Trust John H has spoken to the trustees. There is a need to establish that the candidate for RYLA is a local resident in order to meet the Trust's requirements and to get support.	John H
Young Chef The local competition round was held successfully. There were two winners and two runners-up all of whom were welcomed to Stapleford Park for a training day organised by the head chef; Luke Holland. Overall the entrants have been very keen and of a very good standard. The next round is the District competition to be held on 6th February. We are in touch with the relevant schools and chasing up the application forms needed for this event.	JA
Youth Speaks John H stated that the semi-final dates and venues were: Intermediate – 19th January at Morton New Day Church, High St Morton (nr Bourne) Seniors – 2nd February at William Cecil Hotel, Stamford. He has emailed Catmose College – Catmose have three teams in each of the Intermediate and Senior competitions. John Fearnley School have decided not to progress any further in the competition. Catmose are a rather upset about the arrangements as it means that they are, in effect, competing against themselves and travelling to Bourne and Stamford to do so. The teacher concerned will ring the organiser (Richard Wells) and try and rearrange this. John H will report back Thanks were expressed to Peter Field for all of his work on programmes and certificates	John H

We will include Melton Vale VI form centre, Longfield, John Fearnley, Catmose, and BV. Jane H queried whether Brooksby FE College should be invited to participate. MR said he would look into this via his contact. John H said that Lizzie Strickland was the teacher at Brooksby designated for community links.	MS, MR
