2. Projects

STEPS

Leader Eric Cobley

Nothing to report

Kids Out

Leaders Janet Shortland and Adrienne Holland

Janet reported we had a total of £600 sponsorship to add to our budget, this means we will be able to supply teeshirts and hats for the kids. Richard to put a sheet around the club for members to help at the end of April after Stroke Awareness Day. Committee members going were Janet, Adrienne, Charles and Richard.

Action RH

Life Education

Leader Charles Jenkin

Things in place for the meeting on 16th, sponsors attending not yet confirmed. Charles to liaise with Belvoir regarding numbers etc. Adrienne agreed to give a presentation on the night. The Country Fayre is no longer going forward so we need to look at other promotional activities to raise the profile.

Stroke Awareness Day

Leader Duncan Manderson

Action CJ

Various ways of promoting this event discussed, actions with Duncan.

Reward Day

Leader Adrienne Holland

Adrienne reported one was planned for this term

In Case of Emergency

Leader David Ward

Publicity has been in the Melton Times and Melton Citizen since the last meeting. It was agreed to continue to run with this a plan, for the next year to be drawn up. One suggestion was that Mobile companies should pre programme their phones with ICE. RH to discuss with DW

3. One off awards

A letter from Hazel Joyce was looked at and the committee approved a donation of £100 after some discussion. RH to raise at council

4. Membership

3 prospects were discussed, actions with members to establish initial interest.
